Rama Varmha Tampuran.—I do not know the exact date. It was some time a year back.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—From the Appendix, the amount drawn in the shape of extra remuneration is seen to be very little in 1106 and practically nothing in 1107. In the light of these cases, will the Government be pleased to consider a reasonable revision of their pay?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—I don't know how that question arises. Because they have not been able to get much of copying allowance I do not know how the question of revision of their pay arises.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Rs. 20 was allowed to them with this clause that they are entitled to get half an anna for the extra sheet that they write. Their pay may be raised because of the fact that they are not getting any extra allowance. There is no work in court to entitle them to earn this and they have been told that the question of revision of pay will lie over. More than one year has elapsed and facts show that they are not getting anything.

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—I don't think this itself will entitle them to any revision.
